

// about us
// been there
// contact us
// go home

e code

Browse below to learn more about us!

Foo (fOo): metasyntactic variable used heavily in computer science to represent concepts abstractly and can be used to represent any part of a complicated system or idea including the data, variables, functions, and commands. { source: wikipedia }

2foos (twO fOos): (1) a securely focused design and development firm. (2) the embodiment of two disparate consulting firms into one spectacular firm. { source: 2foos }

all information and images are copyright; 2foos.com © 04/01/08